IP Rolling PICKS – CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. You must be a Citizen or a Permanent Resident of Australia or New Zealand to enter.
2. There are five open categories for book-length manuscripts:
Best Poetry Collection [minimum 48 A4 pages]
Best Fiction [up to 80,000 words]
Best Creative Non-fiction [up to 80,000 words]
Best First Book [any genre; up to 80,000 words]
Best Young Adult or Junior Prose [fiction or non-fiction; up to 70,000 words]
3. Manuscripts must be original, unpublished and not on offer to another publisher for six months from the date of submission to IP Rolling Picks. However you are free to submit portions from the ms to magazines, newspapers or broadcast outlets at any time.
4. You may enter the same manuscript in two categories, i.e. a short story collection, which is your first book, could be entered in Best Fiction as well as Best First Book. You have to pay two entry fees to do so.
5. Entries are reviewed on a monthly basis, with short-listed entries being held over for the next Rolling Picks Editorial Board meeting, held in March and August of each year, from which IP Picks Selections may be chosen in the five categories. In August of each year, the Board will meet to choose the IP Rolling Picks Winners from among the five categories. IP reserves the right not to pick a Selection or Winner in a category if the standard is insufficient.
6. IP Picks Selections will be offered royalty publication in by one of IP's imprints (Interactive Press, Glass House Books, IP Kidz or IP Digital). By entering the competition, you offer IP first right of refusal to publish your work under normal royalty arrangements.
7. Phase One of Rolling Picks involves the review of samples only, so you should only submit about 5% of the total manuscript. In the case of a poetry entry, this could be 8-10 poems. In the case of prose entries, this could be up 2-3 chapters. Your sample must be submitted as an email attachment to a covering message that

- identifies the ms by title
- provides your legal name and contact details, which must include an email address
- indicates which categories you wish to enter (one entry fee per category)
- specifies the free IP branded title you want to order as apart of your entry fee
- indicates how you wish to pay your entry fee (by cheque, money order, electronic funds transfer or PayPal)

Word, Pages or pdf files are acceptable as email attachments.

8. We will acknowledge your entry by sending you an invoice for the required entry fee(s). You can choose to post us a cheque or money order or follow the instructions on the invoice to EFT the payment to us. If you wish to pay by credit card, we'll send you a PayPal invoice, but there will be AU$3 surcharge added for Australian residents and a AU$5 surcharge added for international entrants to cover the bank fees.

9. Entry fee per category are AU$77 (GST-inclusive) or AU$70 (GST-ex for international entrants) made out to Interactive Publications Pty Ltd. Full-time students and pensioners may apply for an exemption from the initial entry fee (proof of status required; no free IP title included). Australian residents may choose one current or backlist title, postage & handling included. International residents may choose the eBook version of a title as either a pdf or ePub file. Refer to our online catalogue at <http://ipoz.biz/Store/Store.htm>. You may choose from any IP branded title listed in the catalogue (not future releases).

10. The decision of the judges will be final and no correspondence will be entered into. The terms here must be read in conjunction with the complete details on http://ipoz.biz/IP/IP\_picks.htm. IP reserves the right not to offer an award if, in the view of the judges, none of the entries is of publishable standard.

Email your entry to info@ipoz.biz with Rolling Picks as your subject.
